

VILLA HUESGEN

FACT SHEET

2019 St. Laurent dry

Site: The Traben site of the twin city of Traben-Trarbach is situated to the South-West. The soil is of a deep, rich and disintegrated gray slate.

Tasting Notes: A superior red wine, matured in French oak barriques. Dark red color, harmonious, hearty aroma reminiscent of black cherries and wild berries with a touch of dark chocolate. The wine has a fine acidity and a velvet tannin structure.

Key Facts

Site: Traben

Grape Variety: 100 % St. Laurent

Alc.: 11,5 % Acid.: 6,4 g/l Res. Sugar: 0 g/l

Classification: Quality wine dry

Age of the vines: 6 years

Vineyard cultivation: Wire-cultivation, no use of herbicides, sustainable viticulture

Vinification: French Barrique 225 l

Ageing potential: 5 years plus

Food matches: Great with light and hearty dishes of beef and game, fine with desserts and ripe cheese

Drinking Temperature: 11-12 °C

Formate: 0,75 l

VILLA HUESGEN, which was founded as a wine estate and wine trading company in 1735 is today managed by Adolph Huesgen VIII. The passion for wine has come natural to him. With much idealism and innovative creativity, Adolph Huesgen VIII has rebuilt the family estate in 2005 under the name VILLA HUESGEN. The estate and its wines bear his nonchalantly elegant signature. Due to the motto "Made by happy people" Adolph Huesgen VIII, his family and his team live the joy of making wines.

WINE INTERNATIONAL ADOLPH HUESGEN e.K.

Am Bahnhof 50 ½ 56841 Traben-Trarbach, Germany ½ www.villahuesgen.com

Telefon +49(0) 65 41 - 812 346 ½ Telefax +49(0) 65 41 - 812 347 ½ info@wine-international.de